

Haus der Musik in Vienna is a modern interactive sound museum located in the historic city centre. Six floors are dedicated to the presentation of the fascinating world of music and sound. The HOUSE OF MUSIC invites its visitors on a musical journey. Music becomes audible and visible in real and virtual rooms. Infotainment, edutainment and entertainment – these three principles pervade the HOUSE OF MUSIC. A link between adventure and experience has been created which is both impressive and enjoyable at the same time.
